2001: A female yew grows SW of the church. Above its 5' bole the tree divides into two substantial growth areas. Branches had been removed from all parts of the tree and ivy covered much of its bole.

Girth: 19' 5" at ground/1' (above roots) and 21' 4" at 3', with much twiggy growth above this height.

Photos: 2006 Geoff Garlick

© Tim Hills - Ancient Yew Group - 2019