2008: The male yew with a girth of over 20' grows at the east end of the church and overhangs the road. Being so close to the A529 it has been cut back regularly. While not giving the impression of a hollow tree, a gap suggests that there are large spaces in the lower bole.