

BROOMFIELD

St Margaret

Diocese of Canterbury

TQ 83995248

Yews were first noted at this site in 1835 in The Mirror of Literature, Amusement and Instruction.

2002: Its one significant tree is this female with a girth of 16' 4" near the ground. Only part of the shell remains, its shape indicating that it was once much larger.

Photos: Cliff Hansford 2005

© Tim Hills 2014

