

DORSET

Belfield House and Garden, Weymouth	In Early memories of Belfield was described “ an ancient yew, the largest I have seen.”
Melbury Osmond	The 1848 Topographical Dictionary of England described “a remarkably fine yew tree” in the gardens of the Glebe House.