Great Offley	St Mary Magdalene	TL14532682	Gazetteer	TH	2011
Hertford	All Saints	TL327125	Notes and Queries 1865: "Under a yew-tree, against the steeple of All Saints' Church, Hertford, is a small ordinary looking gravestone, having the following quaint inscription: 'Here lyeth Black Tom of the Bull Inn, in Bishopgate, 1696'." The yew tree by the steeple today is a fine young yew with a girth of 6ft 1in at 3ft.	TH	2011
Hunsdon	St Dunstan	TL41831270	Gazetteer	Owen Johnson
Little Hadham	St Cecilia	TL44613276	Gazetteer	Ancient Tree Hunt	2008
Much Hadham	St Andrew	TL430197	The church dates to the early part of the 14th century. The yew grows SE of the church. It is a series of young stems around a decaying stump in the centre. This seems like regrowth around what was once a fairly small girthed female tree. Present girth 9' 10" close to ground.	TH	2011
Nettleden	St Laurence	TL02011047	Oldest yews in the Diocese of St Albans	TH	2001
Rickmansworth	St Mary	TQ061942	Gazetteer	TH	2011

Shenley	St Mary	SP83183670	3 younger yews grow in this churchyard, while more are seen in the garden of an adjacent house - perhaps the old vicarage.	Isobel Turner	2018
