

Cornish (1946) recorded 'some old yews' here in his Churchyard Yew and Immortality.

In 2000 there were four, the largest of which is in a cluster of 3 on sloping ground close to the road. It is female with a girth of 16' 9" at the ground.

The photographs were taken in 2011.

© Tim Hills - Ancient Yew Group - 2019