

The sepia drawing by William F. Saunders is dated 1861.

Nicholas Cox recorded the yew in 2007. It grows NE of the church, is female and twin stemmed from a height of 1.5m. The trunk is hollow, the crown spreading and the tree in good health.

Girth at 1m = 5.0 meters. Height estimated at 7m.

