

The sepia drawing by William F.Saunders is dated 1861.

The yew grows NE of the church. It is female and twin stemmed from 1.5m height. The trunk is hollow, the crown spreading and the tree in good health.

Girth at 1m = 5.0 meters. Height estimated at 7m.

