

2010 Peter Norton: 4 male yews grow in the churchyard. The veteran is this hollowing tree SW of the church. Parts of the outer trunk are missing and two large internal stems and fine aerial roots can be seen. Its girth of 13' 7" was recorded at 3' to avoid the many protrusions. A further three younger male yews grow north east of the church.

