

The church was built in the late 14th/early 15th century. The yew is recorded on the Woodland Trust's Ancient Tree Inventory website and has not been seen by an Ancient Yew Group member. The yew was recorded by Paul Hewitt as having a girth of 500cm at 120 cm in 2008.

