

The yew was recorded by Geoff Garlick in August 2008. It is female and grows east of the church. Its bole appeared sound and at about 9'/10' breaks out into many stout branches. Girth recorded was 5.2m (approx 17' at 3').

