

2008: The yew is classified as veteran on account of its condition. It is a horse shoe shaped hollow male tree with a girth of 12' 3" at 3'. It grows south of the church.

There are several smaller girthed yews in the churchyard and others in the landscape that appear to lead towards the church.

© Tim Hills - Ancient Yew Group - 2019